

Bundesverband Deutscher
Kapitalbeteiligungsgesellschaften

German Private Equity and
Venture Capital Association

Rafael Ratzel

Director, International Business Department |
Tsinghua Holdings Capital

Rafael is the head of the International Business Department: In this role he is leading the company's internationalization, major international investment projects, the launch of foreign currency denominated funds and development of international strategy and representation.

Previous experiences include working in international investments at China Minsheng Investment Group (CMIG); International management consulting with focus on Sino-European project and Operations management in procurement for European & North American companies.

Rafael speaks English, German, Chinese, Dutch and French. He graduated from the Global MBA program at Tsinghua University (China) and MIT (USA). He also holds a Bachelor of Industrial & Systems Engineering and a Bachelor of Business Administration from The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (HKSAR, China).